

The fault in their stars

The exhibition will present a rendition of selected passages from Romeo and Juliet performed by students from 4th year.

Were Romeo and Juliet fool or was it just the destiny's fault? Why were they “star-crossed lovers”?

Along with the performances, there will be showing of multimedia projects explaining the methodology of literary text analysis offered in class.

english

